MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT

Modern Slavery Act 2015

This statement is made by Ardour World Limited with regarding its obligations under s54 (1) Modern Slavery Act 2015 for the 2025 financial year and will be updated and published on its website annually. Ardour World Limited takes a zero-tolerance approach towards modern slavery and human trafficking. This statement sets out steps taken by Ardour World Limited to ensure and confirm that there is no evidence of modern slavery or human trafficking taking place within its business or supply chains.

About Ardour World Limited

Ardour World Limited's principal activity is that of a commodity trader in scrap non-ferrous metals sourced from around the world and sold in the majority to the Indian subcontinent.

Commitment and Policies

Ardour World Limited trade with different scrap yards all over the world and ensures no modern slavery or human trafficking is taking place in its business or scrap yards. Its dedicated team of local agents monitor and inspect different scrap yards and ensure there is no suspected modern slavery or human trafficking taking place within the scrap yards.

Ardour World Limited does not have a formal anti-slavery policy; however, we have a procurement policy which reflects zero tolerance to modern slavery and human trafficking and to make clear that this is also the attitude we expect the different scrap yards and mills to adopt.

Compliance and Breaches of the Policy

Employees are encouraged to report any concerns, including suspected modern slavery and human trafficking, using Ardour World's anonymous whistleblowing procedure.
