

Modern Slavery Statement

Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement for the Financial Year 2024

Purpose of this Statement

This statement is made by MSCI Inc. and has been approved by the following wholly owned subsidiaries of MSCI Inc. (together, MSCI or the Firm) pursuant to section 54(1) of the United Kingdom Modern Slavery Act 2015:

1. MSCI Limited
2. MSCI ESG Research (UK) Limited
3. MSCI UK Holdings Limited
4. Barra LLC
5. Barra International, LLC
6. MSCI ESG Research, LLC
7. MSCI G.K.
8. IPD Group Limited
9. Investment Property Databank Limited
10. RiskMetrics Group, LLC
11. Real Capital Analytics, Inc
12. MSCI Holdings 3 LLC
13. MSCI UK Holdings I Limited
14. MSCI UK Holdings II Limited
15. MSCI UK Holdings IV Limited
16. The Burgiss Group LLC

Introduction

The Firm is committed to protecting human rights globally and to providing a fair and ethical workplace. We respect the standards embodied in the Universal Declaration of Human Rights and the International Labor Organization conventions.

Specifically, the Firm strongly opposes slavery and human trafficking and will not knowingly support or conduct business with any organization involved in such activities.

Since 2018, MSCI has had a Chief Responsibility Officer who works closely with the Firm's senior executives and other leaders to ensure our practices and policies are appropriate and meaningful to our clients, shareholders and employees.

More information about the Firm can be found here. We are a global organization with offices in over 26 countries. More information about our offices can be found here. More information regarding the Firm's approach to corporate responsibility can be found here

Overview of Business Activities

MSCI is a leading provider of critical decision-support tools and services for the global investment community. With over 50 years of expertise in research, data and technology, we power better investment decisions by enabling clients to understand and analyze key drivers of risk and return and confidently build more effective portfolios. We create industry-leading, research-enhanced solutions that clients use to gain insight into and improve transparency across the investment process.

Supply Chain

In accordance with our MSCI Supplier Code of Conduct, details of which can be found below, MSCI's Global Strategic Sourcing team manages the procurement of goods and services for the Firm globally, including those involving financial market data, technology hardware, software applications, technology services, travel-related services, consultancy and other services.

The Firm is committed to acting in accordance with its core values and generally expects its suppliers to exhibit a commitment to at least the same standards.

Employees

When hiring new employees, MSCI confirms that all employees are legally able to work in the country in which they are employed. In addition, new employees are provided with written information regarding the Firm's policies with respect to sick pay, holiday pay, and other benefits.

The Firm is committed to providing a safe, healthy and comfortable working environment for all its employees. The Firm offers a broad range of benefits to its employees and supports a global wellness initiative. The Firm has a Global Minimum Primary and Secondary Caregiver leave of absence policy. Where applicable, local regulatory requirements that provide for a greater leave of absence supersede the policy.

MSCI also provides contributions to employees' retirement through defined contributions and defined benefit pensions plans. To keep employees apprised of their benefits, MSCI maintains an internal forum wherein information regarding employee policies and Human Resources specialists are available to address employee concerns and issues.

Furthermore, MSCI conducts employee surveys as part of a continuous listening program to measure engagement and other important elements of the employee experience. The surveys measure whether our approaches to key areas like performance assessment, career development, inclusion, and innovation are effective at driving employee engagement. The results are designed to be used by each manager to improve and enhance the working environment and by senior management to enhance the Firm's overall culture. This information is also considered when evaluating and making improvements in employee policies and practices.

Relevant Policies

Employee Code of Conduct:

All of the Firm's employees are bound by the MSCI Code of Conduct (which is based on the principles in the Code of Ethics and Business Conduct found in the Corporate Governance section of our IR site) and related Compliance policies.

Our Compliance program and policies are overseen by our Head of Compliance and implemented and enforced by Legal and Compliance staff globally. Our Compliance program and policies aim to deter wrongdoing and promote the conduct of all MSCI business in accordance with the highest standards of integrity and include (i) anti-corruption policies that cover anti-bribery, gift giving and receiving policies, and political donations, and (ii) policies regarding treating others with dignity and respect that cover non-discrimination and anti-harassment in the workplace.

Further, our Code of Conduct requires employees to report misconduct, unethical business practices and the violation of any law or Firm policies. MSCI also maintains a global integrity hotline to report concerns on an anonymous basis, where permitted by applicable law.

Global Human Rights Policy:

The Firm's Global Human Rights Policy reflects our commitment to respect and uphold the fundamental human rights of all people. MSCI strives to create a positive workplace where everyone is treated with dignity and respect and strictly prohibits the use of all forms of involuntary or forced labor (please refer to our Global Human Rights Policy for more information).

MSCI Supplier Code of Conduct:

This Code sets out the Firm's values and expectations of our suppliers, including our high-level end-to-end sourcing principles, as well as the labor, human rights, environmental, and legal and compliance principles we generally expect our suppliers to uphold. The Firm also expects its suppliers to live up to both the letter and spirit of this Code. The Code explicitly states that MSCI and its subsidiaries "will not tolerate the use of involuntary, trafficked or forced labor." In addition, the Firm expects its suppliers to comply with applicable United Nations Conventions. The Code can be found here.

Supply Chain Due Diligence Procedures

The Firm expects that our suppliers will not tolerate any form of exploitation in their business or any part of their supply chain. Supplier evaluation and selection may include an assessment of a supplier's business practices and corporate values. Where appropriate, the Firm may invite suppliers to participate in a competitive bidding process. We may request that suppliers furnish to MSCI a self-assessment of the supplier's adherence to the standards and principles of the Supplier Code of Conduct. Supplier compliance with this code of conduct may also be subject to audit by the Firm.

Employee Training

Annually, all employees are required to complete training on the MSCI Code of Conduct and related Compliance policies, as well as certify that they have read and agree to adhere to them. As part of our onboarding process, all new joiners to the company receive training on the MSCI Code of Conduct and related Compliance policies and are required to certify they will comply with the Code and related policies. Members of the MSCI Board of Directors are also required to annually certify they will comply with the MSCI Inc. Code of Ethics and Business Conduct.

The Compliance staff conducts periodic testing of applicable policies and procedures to ensure accessibility and effectiveness. On at least an annual basis, the Head of Compliance provides an update on the overall Compliance program to the Governance and Corporate Responsibility Committee of the MSCI Board of Directors, including with respect to any policy changes, areas of emphasis, known issues or concerns, projects, investigations and violations, statistical trends, and overall program health. The Governance and Corporate Responsibility Committee -also annually reviews the MSCI Code of Ethics and Business Conduct.

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the United Kingdom Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the Firm's slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2024.

This statement was approved by the Board of MSCI Inc. on 13 June, 2025 and was signed by Henry Fernandez, Chairman and Chief Executive Officer.