

Modern Slavery Act 2015 Statement

Our commitment to fighting modern slavery

Available Car Limited recognises that only the best and most successful organisations will prosper in the long term if they meet the objectives of their stakeholders, including guests, suppliers, employees, local communities, investors, governments and other regulators and stakeholders. The Available Car Group, therefore, promotes best practice and complies with all applicable laws, statutes and regulations in force including but not limited to the Modern Slavery Act 2015. This statement is in respect of Graham Bell Holdings Ltd (The Group) and its wholly owned subsidiaries Graham Bell Ltd, Available Car Ltd and Available Vehicles Ltd (dormant).

The Group has taken and is continuing to take, to ensure that modern slavery or human trafficking is not taking place within our business or supply chain.

Modern slavery encompasses slavery, servitude, human trafficking and forced labour. The Group has a zero-tolerance approach to any form of modern slavery. We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity and transparency in all business dealings and to putting effective systems and controls in place to safeguard against any form of modern slavery taking place within the business or our supply chain.

Whistleblowing

Whistleblowing policy. We operate a whistleblowing policy so that all employees know that they can raise concerns about how colleagues are being treated, or practices within our business or supply chain, without fear of reprisals.

Michael Bell
CEO/Director