

Modern Slavery Policy Statement

Generator Power Ltd specialise in total solutions for temporary power supplies provided on rental basis or for purchasing outright. Our services include deployment, maintenance management, fuel management and containerised complete systems and ancillary equipment.

Generator Power Ltd acknowledges its responsibility to the Modern-Day Slavery Act 2015 and will ensure transparency within the organisation and with suppliers of goods and services to Generator Power and its Companies.

Generator Power Ltd is committed to driving out modern day slavery and human trafficking from within its own businesses and that from any of its supply chains.

To meet our Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking obligations, we Will:

Business Ethics

- As part of Generator Powers due diligence processes into slavery and human trafficking the supplier approval process will incorporate a review of the controls undertaken by our suppliers. The level of management control required for these sources will be monitored through our supplier review process.
- Generator Power will not knowingly deal or support any company or business involved in slavery or human trafficking.
- Endeavour to run our business with integrity and transparency, including but not limited to, relationships with employees, customers, suppliers, competitors, the government and the public.
- Not sanction corrupt behaviour under any circumstances, nor engage in Slavery or human trafficking in any of our activities.
- Commit to conducting our operations in compliance with all applicable statutory and regulatory requirements and global environmental initiatives.
- Benchmark ourselves against best practice standards and seek to pursue a best practice approach wherever practical.
- The Directors and Senior Management of Generator Power Ltd shall take responsibility for implementing this policy statement and all its objectives and shall provide adequate resources and investment to ensure that Slavery and Human Trafficking is not taking place within the company and any of its supply chain.

Suppliers

- Seek to promote the application of our Slavery and Human Trafficking policy with our suppliers.

Our Slavery and Human Trafficking Policy is publicly available. The Managing Director has the ultimate responsibility for effective compliance, and it shall be subject to annual review for continued suitability.
