DUE DILIGENCE

We continue to work to improve our internal systems to identify and assess potential risk areas in our supply chains. This includes inputs from key functions within the business including HR, Legal, Procurement, Commercial and Finance.

We also operate a whistleblowing hotline service which encourages persons to speak up and report potential, suspected or actual breach of any laws and regulations. Our hotline is a service provided by a third-party provider, and is available 24 hours a day, 7 days a week. The service allows a report to be made anonymously.

- Continuing to strengthen our risk assessment and due diligence processes for the onboarding of suppliers and customers;
- Arranging audits and inspections of our suppliers where appropriate; and
- Continuing to include language with respect to compliance with anti-slavery and human trafficking laws and policies in all new supplier contracts.

FUTURE STEPS

We will aim to deliver training on modern slavery to all relevant employees in 2026. This will include, but will not be limited to, the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and shall cover:

- Provisions of the Modern Slavery Act 2015;
- How to identify the signs of slavery and human trafficking;
- What initial steps should be taken if slavery or human trafficking is suspected;
- How to escalate potential slavery or human trafficking issues to the relevant parties within the organisation; and
- What external help is available, for example through the Modern Slavery Helpline.
