The Modern Slavery Act of 2015
Slavery & Human Trafficking Statement

Louver-Lite Limited ("the Company") is an independent British Company that designs, manufactures and distributes window blinds systems and fabrics.

The UK Modern Slavery Act requires the Company to disclose the steps it has taken to ensure that slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in the UK business or the supply chain relating to goods which are purchased and sold in the UK. The Company's financial year ended 31st May 2024.

The Company has continued with the following steps:

1. The Company requires its Suppliers and Employees to comply with appropriate standards relating to the use of labour and violation of this may result in the termination of a Supplier / Employee.

2. Prior to partnering with any Suppliers the Company will conduct an initial screening process which may include a pre-arranged visit.

3. The Company has trained those employees who have direct responsibility for supply chain management, particularly with respect to mitigation risks within the supply chain.

This statement was adopted by the Board of Directors of Louver-Lite Limited on Monday 29th July 2024.

Signed on behalf of the Board of Directors by Simon Monk – Chairman

_____