STATEMENT UNDER THE MODERN SLAVERY ACT FOR THE FINANCIAL YEAR 2023

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 of The Modern Slavery Act and sets out our approach to ensuring that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place in our supply chains or in any other part of our business. This statement relates to our financial year 2023 with our financial year ending 31 December 2023.

A H Fuel Oils Ltd based in Cookstown is a leading independent distributor and retailer dealing in petroleum products complying with local legislation and regulations. We are committed to operating with integrity and respect for human rights. We recognize that our reputation for high ethical standards and social performance is a key factor in our overall success within the Oil Distribution Industry.

Within our supply chain we maintain supply relationships with suppliers and customers who are recognized within our industry as being economically, environmentally and socially responsible. We expect our suppliers and customers to obey national and international standards that require them to treat workers and employees fairly, to provide a safe working environment and to protect the quality of the working environment. We have a zero tolerance policy to human trafficking and slavery. Any allegations of practices running contrary to our values and ethics will be investigated and may result in suppliers or customers being required to take corrective action or in serious cases contracts being terminated with offending suppliers or customers. As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we are in the process of assessing potential risk areas. In the coming financial year, we will also be dedicating further time and resources to training employees to increase awareness of the legal requirements and our business policies relating to slavery and human trafficking.

Helen Hutchinson

Director
A H Fuel Oils Ltd