Modern Slavery Statement for the Financial Year ending 31st December 2025

This statement is made pursuant to Section 54 (1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and sets out the steps our company has taken to prevent modern slavery and human trafficking within our business and supply chains.

We are committed to conducting business ethically and with integrity. We recognise our responsibility to take a robust approach to modern slavery and are committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking in all aspects of our business operations.

Our business operates within the UK. We are a dealer of Static Caravans and Lodges, Touring Caravans, Motorhomes, Campervans and provide maintenance and storage services, a touring caravan and glamping site and ancillary services in the Caravan and Motorhome sector.

We are a privately owned Company and our head office is in the UK. We generally operate in the UK and do not normally operate directly outside this area.

Our business is organised into several business units: Sales, After-sales, Caravan Transport, Shop, Caravan Site, Garden Centre, Storage, Café, Gym and Activity Centre.

Our Policies

We operate a number of internal policies to ensure that business is conducted ethically and transparently, including:

- Anti-slavery and human trafficking policy
- Whistleblowing policy
- Equal opportunities policy
- Recruitment and employment procedures
- Supplier standards and expectations

We are committed to ensuring that all employees are treated fairly and with respect.

Due Diligence Processes

As part of our efforts to identify and reduce the risk of modern slavery, we:

- Assess potential risks within our supply chain
- Work with reputable suppliers and partners
- Review supplier practices where appropriate
- Encourage suppliers to comply with the Modern Slavery Act 2015
- Investigate concerns raised by employees or third parties.

Our Business supply chain

Our supply chain includes the procurement of goods and services necessary for the operation of our business activities and is made up of goods for re-sale, goods not for re-sale, food and beverage, business and consultancy services, consumables and disposables, and construction and property materials and services.

Supplier adherence to our values

We have zero tolerance to slavery and human trafficking. We seek to ensure that we only deal with suppliers who are reputable and share our values. We have a compliance team, which consists of involvement from the following departments:

- Legal
- Accounts
- Human resources
- Procurement
- Sales

Training

To ensure a high level of understanding of the risks of modern slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains and our business, we provide training to our staff.

Measuring our effectiveness in combating modern slavery and human trafficking

We understand that we have an ongoing responsibility to assess and mitigate the risk of modern slavery and that these risks are evolving. We are committed to increasing our understanding of these risks and embedding policies to manage the risk.
