

MODERN SLAVERY STATEMENT 2026

Operating with integrity sits at the heart of our business. It is integral to how we conduct ourselves so that we can continue to commit to preventing modern slavery and human trafficking.

Read our modern slavery statement below.

Statement of Intent

L Lynch Plant Hire & Haulage Ltd is committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in any part of our business, or our supply chain.

We are committed to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships. We take reasonable steps to ensure slavery and human trafficking are not taking place in any business or organisation that has any business relationship with our Company. We expect our supply chain and contractors to comply with our values and to have appropriate policies and processes that address slavery and human trafficking.

As part of our commitment to identify and mitigate risks, the company has in place systems to encourage the reporting of any concerns which include, freedom of workers to terminate employment, freedom of movement, freedom of association, any threat of violence, harassment and intimidation, the use of worker-paid recruitment fees, compulsory overtime, child labour, discrimination, confiscation of workers' original identification documents, provides access to remedy, compensation and justice for victims of modern slavery and the protection of whistleblowers.

This statement is made in accordance with Section 54 (1) of The Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes the company's Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking statement.

Actions in the last year

We conducted a detailed risk assessment and created an action plan on the back of this. The plan outlines how we plan to uphold our commitment to preventing Modern Slavery and human trafficking across both our operations and supply chain.

The plan focused on the below areas:

1. Awareness & training
2. Supply Chain and due diligence.
3. Policy, Governance & Accountability
4. Tools, reporting & continuous improvement.
5. Communications & engagement

Updates on progress were delivered quarterly to the Board.

We participated in Modern Slavery audits conducted by two of our customers, attended workshops run by the industry and continued to audit our supply chain.
