OUR POLICIES AND PROCEDURES ON SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

We are committed to ensuring that there is no modern slavery or human trafficking in our supply chain or in any part of our business. Our policies and procedures reflect our commitment to acting ethically and with integrity in all our business relationships whilst implementing and enforcing effective systems and controls to ensure slavery and human trafficking is not taking place anywhere in our supply chain.

At Don & Low Ltd, we value a diverse workforce and recruit, educate, and promote employees with a wide range of skills and attributes. Don & Low Ltd prohibits workplace harassment as per the harassment policy found in the employee handbook, and we respect workers' freedom to associate, by way of a trade agreement, which assures we respect the ability of employees to choose whether or not to join unions and engage in collective bargaining. Don & Low Ltd has implemented a health and safety policy to ensure not only our employees' safety but the safety of the surrounding communities in which we operate.

DUE DILIGENCE PROCESSES FOR SLAVERY AND HUMAN TRAFFICKING

As part of our initiative to identify and mitigate risk we have in place systems to:

- identify and assess potential risk areas when considering taking on new suppliers and regularly review our existing supply chain,
- review the potential for risk at regular intervals, including the possibility of re-auditing a supplier or conducting spot checks, and
- protection for whistle blowers.

OUR COMMITMENT

This statement is made pursuant to section 54(1) of the Modern Slavery Act 2015 and constitutes Don & Low Ltd.'s slavery and human trafficking statement for the financial year ending 31 December 2023.

Signed on behalf of Don & Low Ltd
