MODERN SLAVERY HUMAN TRAFFICKING STATEMENT

Introduction

This Modern Slavery and Human Trafficking Statement is a response to Section 54(1)? Part 6 of the modern Slavery Act 2015 and relates to actions and activities for the financial year ending 31 December 2024.

Olvia LLC (“the Company”, “we”, “us”, or “our”) is committed to preventing slavery and human trafficking violations in its own operations, its supply chain and its products. We have zero-tolerance towards slavery and require our supply chain to comply with our values.

Organisational Structure

Olvia LLC has business operations in Ukraine.

We operate in the Construction, civil engineering and building products sector. The nature of our supply chains is as follows: “We work with a number of key direct suppliers, who provide us with goods, such as equipment for our premises and services, such as outsourced business processes and marketing services”.

Due Diligence

As part of our efforts to monitor and reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our supply chains, we have adopted the following due diligence procedures:

Internal suppliers audits.

Our due diligence procedures aim to:

Identify and action potential risks in our business and supply chains.

Monitor potential risks in our business and supply chains.

Reduce the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in our business and supply chains.

Risk and Compliance

The Company has evaluated the nature and extent of its exposure to the risk of slavery and human trafficking occurring in its Ukraine supply chain through:

Evaluating the slavery and human trafficking risks of each new supplier.

We do not consider that we operate in a high-risk environment because our main customers are NGOs (such as international charitable foundations) or government organizations.

We do not tolerate slavery and human trafficking in our supply chains. Where there is evidence of failure to comply with our procedures by any of our suppliers, we will require that supplier to remedy the non-compliance.

Effectiveness

The company uses Key Performance Indicators (KPIs) to measure its effectiveness and ensure that slavery and human trafficking is not taking place its business and supply chains. The KPIs are as follows:

We will train our staff about modern slavery issues and increase awareness within the Company.

We will carry out a regular audit of suppliers – 100% of suppliers each year.

Training Staff

The Company requires its stuff to complete training and ongoing refresher courses on slavery and human trafficking. The Company`s training covers:

How to identify the signs of slavery and human trafficking.

What initial steps should be taken if slavery or human trafficking is suspected.

How to escalate potential slavery or human trafficking issues to the relevant parties within the Company.

What external help is available.

Next Steps

In the next financial year, we intend to take the following steps to tackle slavery and human trafficking by:

Contact the appropriate law enforcement agencies.

The statement was approved by the Company`s owners.
